SUMMARY OF YOUR RIGHTS

UNDER STATE AND FEDERAL LAW

You have the right to obtain a copy of your credit file from a consumer credit reporting agency. You may be charged a reasonable fee (generally $9.00). There is no fee, however, if you have been turned down for credit, employment, insurance or a rental dwelling because information in your credit report within the preceding 60 days. The consumer credit reporting agency must provide you with someone to help you interpret information in your credit file. You are entitled to receive a free copy of your credit report if you are unemployed and intend to apply for employment in the next 60 days, if you are a recipient of public welfare assistance, or if you have reason to believe that there is inaccurate information in your credit report due to fraud.

You have the right to dispute inaccurate information by contacting the consumer credit reporting agency directly.

However, neither you nor any credit repair company has the right to have accurate, current and verifiable information removed from your credit report. The consumer credit reporting agency must remove accurate, negative information from your report only if it is over seven (7) years old, bankruptcy information is reported for ten (10) years. You may, on your own, notify a credit reporting agency in writing that you dispute the accuracy of information in your credit file. The consumer credit reporting agency must then reinvestigate and modify or remove inaccurate information. The credit reporting agency may not charge a fee for this service. Any pertinent information and copies of documents you have concerning an error should be given to the consumer credit reporting agency. Credit reporting agencies are required to follow reasonable procedures to ensure that the information they report is accurate, however, mistakes may occur.

If the credit bureau's reinvestigation does not resolve the dispute to your satisfaction, you may send a brief statement to the consumer credit reporting agency to keep in your file, explaining why you believe the information is inaccurate. The consumer credit reporting agency must include your statement about disputed information in any report it issues about you. Please note that there are non-profit consumer credit counseling agencies in your state who will assist you to resolve credit problems at no cost or for a nominal fee.

You have the right to cancel this contract for any reason within three working days from the date you have signed it. If for any reason you do cancel the contract during this time, you do not owe any money.

You have the right to sue a credit services organization that violates the Credit Repair Organizations Act. The Federal Trade Commission regulates credit reporting agencies and credit repair organizations. For more information, contact the Federal Trade Commission, Washington, D.C. 80580.

You may cancel this contract at any time within three business days after the date that this contract was signed/authorized by you. See page 5 for instructions on canceling.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

- A. CLAIMS RESOLUTION. Most client concerns can be resolved by calling us directly. In the event that ACS is unable to resolve a complaint to your satisfaction, this section explains how claims can be resolved. This includes an arbitration provision.
- B. ARBITRATION. You agree to arbitrate all disputes and claims between you and ACS on an individual basis only and not part of any class. You agree that, by entering into this Contract, you are waiving all rights to: (a) a trial by jury; (b) participate in a class action law suit or class action arbitration; and (c) bring in action against ACS in a court of law. You may individually arbitrate any claim against ACS in any jurisdiction in the United States. The U.S. Supreme Court has ruled that a business can require arbitration even though the Information and Disclosure Statements accompanying this Contract contain language which may suggest otherwise. ACS will reimburse you up to $300 of your arbitration filing fee. The rules of the American Arbitration Association (“AAA”) shall govern the arbitration and can be viewed online at www.adr.org or by calling 1-800-778-7879.

Initiating Arbitration: Before beginning arbitration, you or we must first send a claim notice to allow the other party 30 days to respond to resolve any disputes. SERVICE OF PROCESS: please send your notice to Alpha Credit Services, Inc. C/O Registered Agents, Inc. 82 Wendell Ave STE 100, Pittsfield, MA 01201. Claims will be referred to AAA. Claims will be resolved pursuant to this Arbitration provision and the selected organization's rules in effect when the claim is filed, except where those rules conflict with this Agreement. Contact AAA to begin an arbitration or for other information. Claims also may be referred to another arbitration organization if you and we agree in writing or to an arbitrator appointed pursuant to section 5 of the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. sec. 1-16 (FAA)

Limitations on Arbitration. The arbitrator's authority is limited to claims between you and us alone. Claims may not be joined or consolidated unless you and we agree in writing. An arbitration award and any judgment confirming it will apply only to the specific case and cannot be used in any other case except to enforce the award. Notwithstanding any other provision and without waiving the right to appeal such decision, if any portion of these Limitations on Arbitration is deemed invalid or unenforceable, then the entire Arbitration provision (other than this sentence) will not apply.

- C. SEVERABILITY. In the event that any provision or covenant of this Contract shall be held invalid, illegal or unenforceable by a court or arbitrator of competent jurisdiction for any reason, then such provision will be severed and replaced with a new provision that most closely reflects the original intention of the parties, and this Contract and all of its remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect for the greatest time period and for the broadest scope permitted by applicable law. You understand and agree that your obligations under this entire agreement and any other provision which by its nature should survive termination, shall survive and remain enforceable after termination of this Contract for any reason without restriction or limit, and/or as provided by applicable law.
- D. CONFLICT IN TERMS. In the event of a conflict between any notice, policy, disclaimer or other term contained in the Website or otherwise, the terms and conditions of this Contract shall control.
- E. FORCE MAJEURE. ACS shall not be liable by reason of any failure or delay in the performance of its obligations hereunder due to any reason beyond its reasonable control.
- F. ENTIRE AGREEMENT. This Contract is the entire agreement between you and ACS and supersedes all other agreements. However, in most cases, modifications from the most recent case summary may be incorporated.

You may cancel this contract at any time within three business days after the date that this contract was signed/authorized by you. See page 5 for instructions on canceling.
